About Dr. Cranham

Dr. John C. Cranham has an aesthetic oriented restorative practice in Chesapeake, Virginia where he resides with his wife and three children. An honors graduate of the Medical College of Virginia in 1988, Dr. Cranham maintains a strong relationship with his alma mata, as an Associate Clinical Professor, teaching in the Graduate Prosthodontics and AEGD programs.

Additionally he was appointed to serve for two years on the Schools board of advisors.

He has completed several of the nationally recognized Continuing Education Continuums (Dawson's Seminar I, II & III, The L.D. Pankey Institute Courses I through V, and all of the curriculum at The Esthetic Epitome).

Dr. Cranham is an internationally recognized speaker on the Esthetic Principles of Smile Design, Contemporary Occlusal Concepts, Laboratory Communication , and Happiness and Fulfillment in Dentistry. After two years as a faculty member for Ross Nash Seminars (The Esthetic Epitome), Dr. Cranham has founded PRE (Predictable Restorative Excellence) Seminars which provide a combination of lecture, mobile hands-on programs, and intensive 2-3 day hands-on experiences at his office in Chesapeake, Virginia. Additionally he provides Occlusion lectures for Dr. Larry Rosenthal's Aesthetic Advantage in New York City & West Palm Beach.

"In the past ten years I have had the pleasure to study with and teach along side dentistry's leaders in occlusion and esthetics. No one has demonstrated to me a greater depth of knowledge, an ability to clarify complex issues, and present material in a personalized (one on one) style than Dr. John Cranham. His dynamic presentations will show you how easy it is to implement complex dentistry into your practice." -Bill Wynne, DDS, Raleigh, NC
